

International Baccalaureate Education Forum

(Organized by Okinawa Shogaku High School)

What is learning that connects to the world?

— 10 Years of IB Education and the Growth of Children —

July 11, 2026 (Sat)

9:30-12:30

Okinawa Prefectural Museum and Art Museum

(OkiMu) Lecture Hall

Free

(Online streaming via Zoom is also available)

Target Audience

- Educators(Elementary, Junior High, and High School Teachers)
- Elementary, Junior High, and High School Students and their Parents
- Those interested in education

○Keynote Speech(9:40-10:20)

The View of Academic Ability Required in the Coming Era and the Educational Significance of IB Education

International Christian University, IB Teacher Training Program Director: Maki Komatsu

Maki Komatsu,
International Christian University
Senior Lecturer

Current position since 2022.

She worked in MYP and DP education at an IB school for 12 years from 2010. Since 2012, she has served as a workshop leader for the IB Educators Network (IBEN) and as an evaluation visitor to IB schools.

○Talk Session(10:30-12:25)

1."How Has Classroom Lessons Changed with IB? - Changes in Learning as Seen from Teachers' Practices"

Introduction of classroom practices by our school's teachers and a dialogue on changes in educational views

2."The Reality of IB Students - Growth Stories Told by Current Students and Graduates"

Presentations by current students and graduates on their learning experiences and personal growth

3. A discussion between university professors and faculty members of our school on the significance of inquiry-based learning and future prospects for education.

How is the ability to inquire fostered? – Learning that connects home, school, and society.

Pre-registration is required to participate.
Please register early.

In-person

Join online

Registration will close once the capacity is reached.

Organizer: Okinawa Shogaku High School

Supporter : The MEXT Consortium for Promotion of IB Education, Okinawa Prefectural Board of Education

Contact : Okinawa Shogaku High School 098-832-1767 (Contact : Matsuo)